THOUGHTS FOR THE CHRISTIAN LIFE.

By the Rev. Jas. Duvinon, with an introduction by Dr.

J. G. Holland. I vol. 12mo. $1.20.

Dr. Holland in his introduction says: "In intellectual power and quality Mr. Drummond was not only an uncommon man but an uncommon style of man. He was an original thinker—a man whose sermons never could be predicted from the texts which formed their subjects.

"In the pulpit he was a man of power. He always had something new to say, and a attitudg and impressive way of saying it. He spoke as one commissioned of lieuven; and he could not have been more in cernest if he had been favored with a vision of the external city—or been permitted to gaze upon the prediction of angely men."
